

Candidate for ANNA Director

Rosie Olivares,
MSN/Ed, BSN, RN, CNN

Experience:

- ANNA member for 16 years
- 21 years of experience in nephrology practice
- Highly qualified nurse leader
- Clinical expertise
- Academic Leadership
- Extensive clinical background in dialysis including hemodialysis, vascular access management, patient assessment and interdisciplinary collaboration.
- Demonstrates effective leadership in clinical operation, staff development, and quality improvement initiatives grounded in evidence-based practice.
- 10 years of experience in academia education and mentoring
- Bachelors of Science in Nursing (2007-2008)
- Master of Science in Nursing (2008-2010)
- Certified Nephrology Nurse (2010)

ANNA
American Nephrology
Nurses Association

Candidate for ANNA Director

Rosie Olivares,
MSN/Ed, BSN, RN, CNN

Qualifications:

- Equipped with the skills to support professional development, promote lifelong learning, and contribute to strategic educational initiatives within ANNA.
- Active participation in Specialty Practice Networks (SPNS) as a leader and advisor
- Collaborate, lead, and engage members contributing to the advancement of nephrology nursing practice nationwide.
- Published Author in the Nephrology Nursing Journal
- Commitment to scholarship and the integration of evidence-based practice.

My leadership, experience, and dedication position me as a strong candidate to help guide ANNA's mission and future direction.

ANNA
American Nephrology
Nurses Association